

CALEDONIAN DANDIE DINMONT TERRIER CLUB

JUDGING SEMINAR

SATURDAY 14TH October 2017

To be held

Moffat Town Hall

A Judging Seminar has been arranged for Saturday 14th October 2017 to be organised in accordance with the Kennel Club Code of Practice for running Breed Seminars and Judging Competence Assessment.

The seminar will commence with reception at 9.30am and conclude 5.00pm

Refreshments and light Lunch will be provided for those taking part.

The Seminar will comprise two parts:-

Part 1. Breed Talk.

(Morning Session) There will be a short break for Tea and Coffee.

Starting with the origins of the Dandie Dinmont Terrier and its function moving onto the Breed Standard, the talk will focus on the basic knowledge an aspiring judge would need to build their understanding and appreciation of the breed, involving live models to assist with candidates obtaining an understanding of Anatomy and General Conformation coupled with movement, elaborating on the breed specific points that set the Dandie apart from other breeds. Time will allow for a Question & Answer session.

Following the talk there will be a written test upon the Breed Standard

Break for lunch

Part 2. Assessment of Judging Competence

(Afternoon Session) Maximum of 15 Candidates only

Candidates will go over 5 dandies, watch them move and make notes with a view to placing each exhibit in order of merit.

Confidentiality throughout the process of assessment, each candidate will be given a Workbook containing Worksheet and Placing Sheet together with Findings Sheet for each of the 5 exhibits examined.

Candidates if successful will receive a Breed Certificate in Judging Competence Award.

Cost of Attending:-

Part 1 Breed Talk (Morning Session) includes refreshments and light lunch £15

Parts 1 & 2 (Morning & Afternoon) includes refreshments and light lunch £25
